

M.A. in Leadership Studies

The Master in Leadership Studies (MLS) is a program preparing its graduates for positions of responsibility in education, military, private industry, government and the not-for-profit sectors dedicated to the improvement of both the substance and processes of leadership in a variety of roles. The Master in Leadership Studies degree provides professional education for students interested in leadership careers. The interdisciplinary program is designed to emphasize the knowledge, skills, values, and behaviors essential to the successful organizational leader. Some flexibility in curriculum is permitted to meet the diverse educational needs of students at different points of time in their careers and in need of specialization in light of their career goals. The curriculum components are designed to produce professionals capable of intelligent and creative analysis, communication, and action in leadership functions.

Admission Requirements

1. Submission of transcripts according to the requirements of the Graduate School.
2. Bachelor's degree from an accredited college or university.
3. Demonstration of academic achievement and potential as indicated by the results of the Miller Analogies Test (MAT) or the Graduate Record Examination (GRE) and upper-level undergraduate and graduate coursework.
4. A one- to two-page statement of purpose that addresses educational and career goals and reasons for pursuing an MLS degree.
5. Three letters of recommendation from instructors, job supervisors, or others in a position to evaluate the student's ability to succeed in a MLS program.
6. A current resumé reflecting career and volunteer experience.
