

BA in Linguistics and Bilingualism

UTEP has offered courses in Linguistics since 1964 and degrees in Linguistics since 1969. The program in Linguistics provides broad training in both theoretical and applied linguistics, preparing students for Ph.D. studies in Linguistics, as well as for careers in TESOL and language teaching. The program is distinctive in that classes are generally small and the atmosphere supportive, while at the same time the faculty are internationally recognized for their research achievements, which often involve active student collaboration. El Paso's multilingual character and its location on the U.S.-Mexico border make for a fascinating environment for anyone interested in language and language learning. Most El Paso residents are bilingual in English and Spanish. German and Korean are often overheard, and there are Apache- and Tarahumara-speaking communities nearby.

Marketable Skills

1. Students will be able to apply syntactic and phonological theory.
2. Critical thinking: Analyze and evaluate issues in order to solve problems and develop informed opinions.
3. Pedagogy: Co-create knowledge and skills with students of different backgrounds.
4. Writing: Communicate using text in a clear and concise manner.

Learning Outcomes

1. Knowledge of syntactic and phonological theory.
2. Operate syntactic and phonological analyses.
3. Knowledge of issues and controversies related to language acquisition and processing.
4. Knowledge of issues and controversies related to language variation and change.
5. Evaluate issues of analysis as appropriate to the BA level.
6. Develop the attitudes and values of the field of linguistics required to function in advanced study or as a professional in a linguistics-related area.

Students seeking admission to the program leading to the Master of Science in Speech-Language Pathology can become qualified applicants to that program by pursuing the BA in Linguistics in combination with the Liberal Arts minor in Speech-Language Pathology. Refer to this minor in the list of Liberal Arts minors. These students will be jointly advised by Linguistics and Speech-Language Pathology.

Fast Track

The Fast-Track Program (<http://catalog.utep.edu/admissions/undergraduate/fast-track/#text>) enables outstanding undergraduate UTEP students to receive both undergraduate and graduate credit for up to 15 hours of UTEP course work as determined by participating Master's and Doctoral programs.

Not all undergraduate programs have elected to participate in the Fast Track option, so students should see their departmental graduate advisor for information about requirements and guidelines. A list of courses that have been approved for possible use at the graduate level is found here (<http://catalog.utep.edu/admissions/undergraduate/fast-track/#fasttrackcoursestext>).
