Educ. Psych. & Counseling Courses

Courses

EDPC 1301. Introduction to Ed Psychology.
Introduction to Educational Psychology, Topic 1. (Common Course Number EDUC 2100) Relationship of interests, aptitudes and careers. Includes exploration of work settings and activities to support individual career planning. Students expected to investigate work settings, relate this investigation to academic programs, and utilize this information in individual career development.

Department: Educ. Psych. & Counseling
3 Credit Hours
3 Total Contact Hours
0 Lab Hours
3 Lecture Hours
0 Other Hours

EDPC 2300. Intro to Child & Ad Devel.
Introduction to Child and Adolescent Development: [TCCN EDUC 2301] This course covers the development of infants, toddlers, children, adolescents, and young adults with specific emphasis on applications for educators in early childhood and public school settings. Specific field-based experience may be required.

Department: Educ. Psych. & Counseling
3 Credit Hours
3 Total Contact Hours
0 Lab Hours
3 Lecture Hours
0 Other Hours

Classification Restrictions:
Restricted to class of FR,JR,SO,SR

EDPC 3300. Intro to Youth Dev & Spec Ed.
Introduction to Youth Development and Special Education. This course covers the development of children and adolescents, with emphasis on applications for educators working with students with disabilities in inclusive public school settings. Emphasizes characteristics, teaching strategies, legal requirements, and collaboration with students, families, and teachers. Specific field experience may be required.

Department: Educ. Psych. & Counseling
3 Credit Hours
3 Total Contact Hours
0 Lab Hours
3 Lecture Hours
0 Other Hours

Developmental Variations and Learning Differences (3-2) Survey of human growth and development of adolescents and young adults as well as variations of typical development and accommodations made within the education system. Survey of various exceptionalities and laws pertaining to the disabled. Prerequisites: Admission to the Teacher Education Program and department approval.

Department: Educ. Psych. & Counseling
3 Credit Hours
5 Total Contact Hours
2 Lab Hours
3 Lecture Hours
0 Other Hours

EDPC 4350. Workshop-Educ Psych & Cnseling.
Workshop in Educational Psychology and Counseling (3-0) Studies in designated area. May be repeated for credit when topic varies. Restricted to minor: ALED. Prerequisite: Department approval.

Department: Educ. Psych. & Counseling
3 Credit Hours
3 Total Contact Hours
0 Lab Hours
3 Lecture Hours
0 Other Hours