

Graduate Certificate in Teaching History

---

Prerequisite: Admission to the Graduate Program in History

The Certificate in History consists of 18 credit hours of graduate courses in History. To be eligible to teach dual-credit courses (i.e., courses that offer credit for both high school and college simultaneously), teachers must have either 18 credit hours of graduate work in History and a master's degree in another discipline or an MA in History. Students must receive a B or better in all courses that count toward the Certificate.

Requirements for the Certificate include:

Code	Title	Hours
HIST 5320	Readings in US History to 1865	3
HIST 5322	Readings in US Hist Since 1865	3
nine (9) hours of graduate studies courses in History		9
three (3) hours of a graduate seminar in History		3
Total Hours		18

Credit earned for the Certificate can be counted towards the MA in History.

Degree Plan

Required Credits: 18

Code	Title	Hours
Graduate Certificate in Teaching History (All courses require a grade of C or better)
Required Courses:
HIST 5320	Readings in US History to 1865	3
HIST 5322	Readings in US Hist Since 1865	3
Graduate Seminar:
Select one from the following:		3
HIST 5370	Seminar-United States History
HIST 5374	Seminar in Borderlands History
HIST 5376	Seminar in World History
HIST 5377	Seminar-Latin American History
HIST 5382	Seminar: European History
Graduate Studies:
Select three courses from the following:		9
HIST 5305	Studies in United States Hist
HIST 5306	Studies in World History
HIST 5309	Studies in Latin American Hist
HIST 5312	Studies in Borderlands History
HIST 5316	Studies in European History
Total Hours		18