

BA in Anthropology

Anthropological study prepares students for an increasingly global and diverse economy. Graduates are well prepared for careers in community outreach and community organizations; as government or social agency managers; in work with immigrants and culturally distinctive groups; and in museums and other cultural heritage sites. Graduates are also prepared to continue on to a Master's degree and teach at the community college level or a Ph.D. and continuing with advanced teaching and research.

Marketable Skills

Students will develop the following marketable skills:

1. Communication: Reach mutual understanding through effective exchange of information, ideas, and feelings
2. Critical thinking: Analyze and evaluate issues in order to solve problems and develop informed opinions
3. Global awareness: Understand and appreciate people, cultures, and ideas from around the world that impact our community
4. Research: Be able to search, investigate and critically analyze information in response to a specific research question
5. Social responsibility: Act ethically and responsibly for the benefit of society and the public good

Fast Track

The Fast-Track Program (<http://catalog.utep.edu/admissions/undergraduate/fast-track/#text>) enables outstanding undergraduate UTEP students to receive both undergraduate and graduate credit for up to 15 hours of UTEP course work as determined by participating Master's and Doctoral programs.

Not all undergraduate programs have elected to participate in the Fast Track option, so students should see their departmental graduate advisor for information about requirements and guidelines. A list of courses that have been approved for possible use at the graduate level is found here (<http://catalog.utep.edu/admissions/undergraduate/fast-track/#fasttrackcoursestext>).
